A Message from Father Rick

I like reading Matthew Kelly's book "Resisting Happiness." It touches on the most fundamental desire of our life that is our longing to be happy. Kelly says that while most of us think we are relatively happy we know we could be happier or even a lot happier. For example in his book Kelly argues that it is us who sabotage our own happiness when we procrastinate and when we avoid the real issues in our life and only focus on the superficial. This Sunday's gospel Jesus addresses the issue of true happiness. Jesus began his sermon on the mount by proclaiming the beatitudes. The word beatitude literally means happiness or blessedness. For Our Lord, however, happiness means a complete turnaround of ones way of life. Happiness demands a transformation from within. True happiness can only happen when there is a conversion of heart and mind. Prophet Jeremiah says, "Blessed is the one who trust in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord." It is because true conversion is a gift from the Lord for those who trust in Him. Transformation comes through the gift and working of the Holy Spirit. Yes, we can truly be happy. Let us put our trust in the Lord and received that gift of conversion.
